

An Architecture of the Seven Senses

By

Juhani Pallasmaa

ISSUES ADDRESSED

Modern architecture losing sensuality that has embodied in the past.

Form : Loss of scale

Materials : Loss of tactility

Loss of crafted details

DESIGN METHOD

Contemporary approach of form & materials as well as emphasize sensual experiences in space.

7 SENSES

Sight

Hearing

Taste

Smell

Touch

Intuition

Equilibrium (Body Configuration/ Identification)

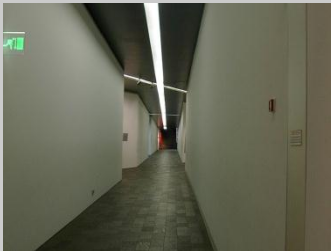

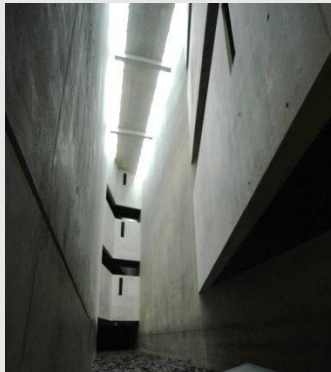

ARCHITECTURAL FORM

Jewish Museum by Daniel Libeskind

Rekindle role of senses in architecture by shaping poetic space.

Giving a new interpretation for contemporary buildings by usage of materials & form to create a sensual space.

FORM/ MATERIAL	SENSES	PHOTOS
Dark & Narrow Path	Feeling Lost
Void with Light	Sense of Hope
Enclosed Space	Sense of Oppression
Iron Smile Faces (Metal)	Feeling Emptiness

Journey of the 5 senses

Entrance

Tight & dark path

Intertwined history of Berlin & Jews

Underground & narrow walls tilt

Endure anxiety of hiding & losing the sense of direction

Axis of continuity

Artificial lighting

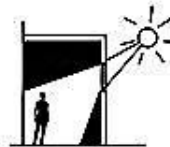

Direction to a sense of hope

Normal width of staircase to emphasize verticality & continuity

Hope of continuity in Jewish history

Natural lighting from windows

Sense of hope

Memory Void

66' tall void with double skylight

Feeling never escape. Absence of Jewish Fear

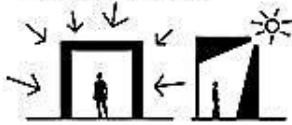

Metallic sound from iron faces

Echoes of sound feeling emptiness sad whimpering violence of Germans

Welcoming

Holocaust Tower

Enclosed space & sharp edges

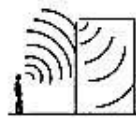

Sense of oppression Jail feeling

Raked floor & untreated wall

Similar with gas chamber event Nervous, cold & fear feeling

Voices outside

Barely heard the voices outside

Garden of Exile

Tilted floor

Off-balance feeling Disorientation

Repetitive pillars

Uncanny feeling feeling lost

Lock up open sky

Voices from outdoor moment of exaltation

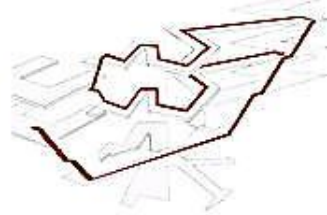

Stone pathway

Cold & lonely Adventurous

Fear & Sadness

Lost & Confused

THANK YOU